Our Jailbird Word (rule breaker) is:

again

Math

**We will continue to use addition and subtraction to solve math problems with the missing number in different places and story problems.

**We will continue to work with graphs and tally marks.

WRITING

**Our focus in writing will be INFORMATIVE WRITING. This type of writing is nonfiction. It gives facts and/or teaches the reader about a topic.

Please encourage your child to write at home. Students should use neat handwriting, capital letters, and ending punctuation when writing. Past spelling words are expected to be spelled correctly when writing.

Bateman

I am looking forward to seeing everyone at Parent Teacher Conferences!

**Do not forget to Spring Forward this weekend!****

Gray

I put times for Parent Teacher conferences in folders today. (Friday) I'm excited to see everyone and share all the progress the kids have made. THANK YOU for making sure your child completed his research planner. The kids are very excited about their research!

Kirkland

Please remember to send Animal Research Planners to school by Monday! Thank you for all the help! Be on the lookout for Parent Teacher Conference Forms

Echols

Please send homework back on Fridays for three tickets and shopping! I look forward to meeting with you next week at conferences!

Wells

I can't wait to see all of the research your child has done about their animal! Organizers will need to be turned in next Monday. Also, I will be sending a sign-up link for Parent-Teacher Conferences next week through the Remind app. Have a wonderful weekend!

Events/Reminders

**March 14 & 15 - Parent/Teacher Conferences

**March 19-23 - Spring Break

**March 30 - Monthly Sweet Treat Day
